

Devon Prepared

Whole of Society Resilience Forum

Friday 22nd March at the Kenn Centre, Exeter.

| MORNING | | |
|----------------|---|--|
| 9.30 | Doors open for registration, coffee, networking and to view displays | |
| 10.00 | Welcome | |
| 10.05 | Introduction to the day: Outline and aims of the session. | Rod Birtles: Devon Communities Together |
| 10.10 | Keynote speaker: Overview of Whole of Society Resilience | Becky Maynard: Regional Engagement Manager, Voluntary and Community Sector Emergencies Partnership |
| 10.20 | <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Panel discussion plus Q&A with:<ul style="list-style-type: none">o Niki Warner: Emergency Planning and Business Continuity Officer, Teignbridge District Councilo Leo Hansen: Flood Resilience Engagement Advisor, Environment Agencyo Chris Khan: Flood Resilience Officer, Environment Agencyo Philip Cole: Mayor, Kingsbridge Town Councilo Tegan Faulkner: Neighbourhood Highways Officer, Devon County Council | |
| 11.25 | Break | |
| 11.45 | <ul style="list-style-type: none">- How should we present Devon Prepared?- Round table discussion:<ul style="list-style-type: none">o What are you already doing to promote resilience?o What would you like to do more of?o What are the barriers?o How can we best support vulnerable people?o Where next? | |
| 1.00 | Lunch / networking | |

| AFTERNOON | | |
|-------------|--|---|
| 2.00 - 2.40 | Workshop 1: MOBILIZING COMMUNITY RESILIENCE SPACES - Using Village Halls and Other Community Buildings as Emergency Centres | Alice Moorcroft-Hughes, Groundwork South Group Discussion Facilitator: Danielle Wootton, Community Development Officer, Devon Communities Together |
| | Workshop 2: CLIMATE CHANGE: PUBLIC HEALTH IMPACTS AND COMMUNITY ADAPTATION | Emily Reed: Project Manager, Devon Climate Emergency, Devon County Council Sam Trethewey, Public Health Registrar, Devon County Council - Public health impacts of climate change: co-benefits of mitigation and adaptation |
| 2.40 - 2.50 | Change over | |
| 2.50 - 3.30 | Workshop 3: ENGAGING HOUSEHOLDERS IN MANAGING GARDENS TO PREVENT RUNOFF | Liza Oxford: BRIC Project Lead, Plymouth City Council |
| | Workshop 4: HOW YOUNG PEOPLE AND COMMUNITIES ARE COMING TOGETHER IN NORTHERN DEVON TO BUILD YOUTH RESILIENCE AND IMPROVE MENTAL HEALTH (KAILO). | Kristian Tomblin: Commissioning Manager, Public Health, Devon County Council Dr Tim Hobbs, CEO, Dartington Service Design Lab This workshop describes a novel approach in which local public services, community partners and young people consider how issues interrelate – then co-design locally contextualised responses. You'll then have time to explore together how these ideas might relate and contribute to wider community resilience-building initiatives. |
| | Workshop 5: ENGAGING THE COMMUNITY IN YOUR EMERGENCY RESPONSE | Dr Alex Arnall, Associate Professor in Environment and Development, University of Reading – Community Led Response to Sea Level Rise Angie Weatherhead, Events, Projects and Tourism Officer, Dawlish Town Council – Putting your emergency plan into action |
| 3.35 | Plenary | Round up of the day's discussions. |
| 4.00 | End | |